General Comment

It has come to my attention that you have proposed a new rule that would restrict or prohibit me from trading options in my brokerage account. I have been trained in option strategies that make the risks I take much lower than if I just allowed my IRA money to be invested in a Mutual Fund or individual stocks.

Please do not interfere with how I manage my IRA funds. I fear there are many trying to make decisions they think will help investors in this situation, and they could well be harming me. I request that you not interfere with something that is part of my strategy.
